DETAILED ACTION

Receipt of Amendments/Remarks filed 10/30/06 and Supplemental Amendments filed 12/6/06 is acknowledged. Claims 1-4, 6, 8, 10-16, 19-21, 23-24, 26-138 are pending in this application.

Election/Restrictions

In light of applicant's amendments and new claims submitted 10/30/06, a species restriction is deemed appropriate.

1) This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species:
1) gel, 2) solution, 3) aerosol, mousse, and foam, 4) ointment, 5) lotion, 6) cream, 7) paste, 8) shampoo, and 9) conditioner. The species are independent or distinct because each product form comprises certain excipients to provide the final product form (structure). For instance, an aerosol require propellants to provide for an aerosol product whereas a gel requires gelling agents. Therefore, it is considered that each species is independent since each species requires distinct excipients to yield the desired form (this is evidenced by the independent claims wherein the aerosol composition requires a propellant; the lotion requires oils and stabilizers; the gel requires a gelling agent or thickener, etc.).

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, 1 and 112 are generic.

2) Claim 112 is generic to the penetrating agent. The following disclosed patentably distinct species are an alcohol, an amine, a carboxylic acid, an ester, an azone, N-methyl pyrrolidone, a bile salt, urea, dodecanol alcohol, oleyl alcohol, isopropyl amine, diisopropyl amine, triethyl amine, triethanol amine, diisopropanol amine, ethylene diamine, the penetrating agent is selected from the group consisting of oleic acid, linoleic acid, linolenic acid, dibutyl sebacate, dibutyl phthalate, butyl benzoate, and ethyl caprate. The numerous and distinct species claimed presents burdensome search.

3) Lastly, the applicant is required to select from the co-solvent glycerol, 1,3 butylene glycerol, propylene glycol, and benzyl alcohol. The species are distinct since benzyl alcohol is an aromatic alcohol whereas PPG is a polyhydric alcohol.

Note the above are three distinct species requirement and applicant must select a species from each group, i.e. select the product form; a penetrating agent; and a co-solvent.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
